

PEOPLE

Most Influential Person

1. Stephen Covey
2. Alan Ashton
3. Paul Allen

Best Local Business Speaker

1. Lloyd Newell
2. Kip Kint
3. Dave Crenshaw

Best Boss

1. Lee Livingston, Fibernet Corp.
2. Andrew Smith, AxisPointe, Inc.
3. Josh James, Omnitare, Inc.

Best CEO

1. Aaron Garrity, XanGo, LLC
2. Jessica Devenish, Checknet, Inc.
3. Dr. D. Clark Turner, Aribex, Inc.

Best Assistant

1. Cindy Dayton, Aribex, Inc.
2. Tareasa Eagar, AxisPointe, Inc.
3. Trudy Meister, Paragon Health Management

Employees spend hours each week unwinding in XanGo's citrus-scented haven.

| BEST BREAK ROOM |

BREAK ROOM BREAK DOWN

Fridays be damned. XanGo's goal is to be a "Monday morning company" — a place where employees look forward to work after the weekend. And it's working. One reason is the plush break room, inspired by CEO Aaron Garrity. Love sacs, exercise equipment, an Xbox360, orange walls, a roaming sorbee machine, flat-panel TVs and a heavenly citrus scent all make the XanGo-ites break for joy.

Here's a look at the employee mecca by the numbers.

Citrus orange furniture dots the breakroom.

- 15,000 square feet of employee exercise, dining and entertainment space
- 30 exercise machines
- 9 yoga mats
- 2 massage chairs and therapists on-hand one day a month, free for employees
- 8 flat-panel TVs — four in the exercise area, four in the lounge area
- 4 dining booths
- 150 hours — the total time employees play foosball in a week (approximate)
- 48 — the number of employees who competed to be crowned XanGo Rock Band Champion
- $800 — the prize given to the winning rock band